Hello!

I have tried to figure out how to start this e-mail. Do I talk about how winter is finally deciding to mosey into our neck of the woods as the trees reluctantly give up the last of their leaves? Or do I announce the big news first...which is of course that our gorgeous little man-child joined our family a couple of weeks ago? Oooorr do I do the responsible business thing and launch right into the pertinent and exciting Beeyoutiful offers?

The Man-Child news wins! Mostly because he is just SO cute but also because his little squeaks and grunts beside me are letting me know that my two hands free moments are counting down rapidly before it's eating time for him again. So, I'll type the rest of this fast! Caleb Joshua was born on 11/1/2011 in the wee hours of the morning after a shockingly fast labor. Weighing in at 7 lbs and 8 oz he has already brought so much joy to our family. Noelle is delighted that her brother is finally with us and Steve and I catch ourselves just gazing at him in wonder, marveling at his tiny perfection. His birth story can be read at my blog here. I want to thank all of you who prayed for us both during his pregnancy. To have him arrive so healthy despite my continued health challenges was a direct answer to prayer and we are so grateful!

Nutrimill - $199.99 (normally $259.99)

As colder weather has encroached it is a reminder that the Holidays are just around the corner. Steve and I both love Thanksgiving and Christmas. Thanksgiving is my favorite and Christmas is his. For us the holidays are all about the sweetness of fellowship with family and friends, delicious food, and a compelling reason to set our daily tasks aside and have pressure free recharge time. With Thanksgiving just around the corner Steve and the rest of the Beeyoutiful Staff took a look to see what they could put together for our customers in honor of this Season of Thankfulness.

What they came up with is pretty exciting and put a grin on my face! I might be sneaking in some early Christmas shopping myself while these specials are available.

First things first: These Special Offers and Prices
